

SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES

In maintaining its image as a non-profit, philanthropic organization, the Board of Directors of the St. Patrick Society has approved one college scholarship of $1,500 to be awarded in 2023. Guidelines for eligibility are as follows:

1. The applicant must be a relative of a St. Patrick Society member
2. That relationship must be a daughter, son, granddaughter, grandson, niece or nephew
3. If funds are available for awarding a scholarship they will be awarded at a maximum of $1,500 per scholarship
4. Applicants must evidence the ability to pursue a college education scholastically. This will be evidenced by submission of the applicant's grade point average, class standing, and SAT/ACT scores
5. Consideration will be given to extra-curricular activities of applicant, both at school and within the community
6. Letters of recommendation from teachers, counselors, employers, and others will be considered
7. Second year requests will be considered providing grades are acceptable
8. The scholarship check will be made payable to the college
9. The committee must receive applications by the designated deadline
10. A three-member committee of area educators and/or civic leaders, who are not Society Board members, will make the selection
11. Awarding the scholarship by the St. Patrick Society will be announced at the annual Gathering of the Clan Luncheon
